MILWAUKEE - Many things have changed in the last few days when it comes to voting in Milwaukee.

- The Wisconsin Supreme Court has ruled that in-person voting will go on as scheduled today, April 7th
. Polls will be open from 7 AM-8 PM.

- All regular polling locations have been consolidated into 5 locations, to find your new polling site, go to:
myvote.wi.gov
or call 414-286-3491

- All Absentee ballots must be dropped off today by 8pm or mailed. It must be postmarked on April 7th to count.

- If you have NOT received your absentee ballot the you requested email the election commission at voterinfo@milwaukee.gov or call them at 414-286-3491

I hope that if you do go to vote today, you take care to maintain proper social distancing, wear a mask if you're able, and bring your own black pen.

If you need a ride, call us: 414-943-0756
