The counting and recounting are over, and the result remains the same. Joe Biden is the winner in Wisconsin.

MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers on Monday, in accordance with state and federal law, signed the Certificate of Ascertainment, certifying the results of the November 3rd General Election.

“Today I carried out my duty to certify the November 3rd election, and as required by state and federal law, I’ve signed the Certificate of Ascertainment for the slate of electors for President-elect Joe Biden and Vice President-elect Kamala Harris,” said Gov. Evers. “I want to thank our clerks, election administrators, and poll workers across our state for working tirelessly to ensure we had a safe, fair, and efficient election. Thank you for all your good work.”
