Covid-19 Business Relief Grant Program (CV-BRG) provides funding to businesses in the City of Green Bay to help stabilize or prevent shutdowns.

GREEN BAY, WI - The Mayor's office on Wednesday announced a new program to aid local businesses adversely impacted by the slow economy of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The purpose of the Covid-19 Business Relief Grant Program (CV-BRG) is to provide funding to businesses in the City of Green Bay to help stabilize or prevent shutdowns due to the economic hardship of the Covid-19 pandemic.

How much?

Grants provided will be up to $5,000 per 10 full-time equivalent employees, with a maximum of $25,000 per business.

Eligible Businesses

- Must be a for-profit business located in the City of Green Bay
- Show either a financial hardship or proof of business going out of business due to the economic impact of Covid-19 pandemic.
- Complete and sign a Duplication of Benefits worksheet. Federal requirements prohibit the use of CV-BRG funds if another source of funding is available for the same expense.
- The use of the CV-BRG must be determined to be “necessary and appropriate” as defined
