Gov. Evers provides update Monday, pandemic-relief investments in Wisconsin target infrastructure, tourism, workforce, other key areas to ensure economic recovery.

MADISON - On Monday, Gov. Tony Evers shared an update of investments made in response to the COVID-19 pandemic toward ensuring the state's continued economic recovery.

To date, the Evers Administration has announced planned allocations of more than $4.5 billion in total from the state's Coronavirus Relief Fund (CRF) and State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (SLFRF) allocations, which were made available to Wisconsin through the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act and American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), respectively. In addition, Wisconsin counties and municipalities were directly allocated more than $2.3 billion by the U.S. Treasury. ARPA funds must be obligated by Dec. 31, 2024, and expended by Dec. 31, 2026.
