

Federal judge approves bankruptcy settlement for Purdue Pharma

Written by The Hill Press

Thursday, 02 September 2021 09:07 -

Would shield members of the Sackler family and hundreds of their associates from future opioid lawsuits.

WASHINGTON, DC - A federal judge on Wednesday approved a controversial bankruptcy settlement for OxyContin manufacturer Purdue Pharma that would shield the members of the Sackler family who own the company from future opioid-related claims.

Read the developing report here