Trump officials say children of US service members overseas will not get automatic citizenship

Written by The Hill Press Thursday, 29 August 2019 08:13 -

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Trump administration said Wednesday that children born to U.S. military members and government employees working overseas will no longer automatically be considered United States citizens.

Read the developing report here