

Castro goes after Biden in debate, accusing him of failing to carry on Obama's legacy

Written by The Hill Press

Thursday, 12 September 2019 22:23 -

HOUSTON, TX - Former Housing and Urban Development Secretary Julián Castro accused former Vice President Joe Biden of "forgetting" how he described his own health care plan during Thursday's debate and of not fulfilling former President Obama's legacy.

"You just said that two minutes ago, you just said two minutes ago that they would have to buy in," Castro as the men shouted over each other about health care. "Are you forgetting what you said two minutes ago?"

Read the full story here