Marie Yovanovitch testifies President removed her from post to make way for Rudy Giuliani, Ukraine shakedown plot.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - House Democrats wasted no time Friday saying President Trump's real-time Twitter attack on a top U.S. diplomat — as she was testifying on Trump's dealings with Ukraine — was more evidence of presidential misconduct as they charge ahead with their impeachment probe.

"The president in real time is engaging in witness intimidation and witness tampering," an exasperated Rep. Jackie Speier (D-Calif.), a member of the Intelligence Committee, told reporters during a break in the Yovanovitch hearing.
