Green Bay Senator says Governor Evers' decision is intended to protect both public safety and the integrity of election. Asks Republican colleagues to drop the politics.

GREEN BAY - Today, Gov. Tony Evers, after his call for a special session on Saturday was ignored by the Republican leadership in Madison, signed Executive Order #74, suspending in-person voting for the April 7 spring election and moving in-person voting to June 9, 2020. By this writing, that same leadership has vowed to challenge this executive order to the Wisconsin State Supreme Court they packed while Scott Walker was Governor.

Last week, Senator Dave Hansen of Green Bay and others called upon Assembly Speaker Robin Vos

and Senate Majority Leader

Scott Fitzgerald

to immediately convene the legislature to address the many problems facing Wisconsin families due to the COVID-19 crisis and the developing dangers of holding in-person voting on April 7.

Sen. Hansen released this statement today on the developing controversy.
