

Biden releases 2019 tax returns hours before first presidential debate

Written by The Hill Press

Tuesday, 29 September 2020 08:46 - Last Updated Thursday, 01 October 2020 09:01

Trump has refused to release his. Records show Trump paid just $750 in federal income tax in both 2016 and 2017 and nothing in 10 of the 15 previous years.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden and his running mate Sen. Kamala Harris (D-Calif.) released their 2019 federal and state tax returns on Tuesday, hours before the former vice president meets face-to-face with President Trump in the first debate of the 2020 presidential race.

Read the developing report here