

Appeals court halts Trump special master appointment in Mar-a-Lago case

Written by The Hill Press

Thursday, 01 December 2022 17:04

<http://newiproggressive.com/images/stories/S5/trump-jan6-speech-2022-s450.png>

The law is clear, no subject of a search warrant should get special treatment, even former Presidents says 11th Circuit Court of Appeals.

WASHINGTON, DC - An appeals court on Thursday ruled that the appointment of a special master after the search of former President Trump's Florida home was improper, determining that a low court could not block the Justice Department investigation into the mishandling of records at Mar-a-Lago.

Read the developing story here .