

Trump slaps new sanctions on Iran after drone shot down

Written by The Hill Press
Monday, 24 June 2019 15:47

Stays with additional financial sanctions.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - President Trump on Monday announced additional sanctions against Iran targeting the country's supreme leader.

Trump signed an executive order in the Oval Office that he said will deny the supreme leader and others access to financial instruments. Trump had previously signaled he would levy additional sanctions on Iran amid simmering tensions between the two countries.

Read the full story here