Witness who testified in House impeachment inquiry pushed out of job by Trump.

WASHINGTON, DC - Lt. Col. Alexander Vindman was escorted out of the White House on Friday and told to leave his position at the National Security Council, according to a statement from his attorney.

Vindman was one of the key witnesses who testified in connection with the House impeachment inquiry about President Trump's phone call with the Ukrainian president during which Trump raised investigations of former Vice President Joe Biden and his son Hunter Biden's dealings in Ukraine.
