Listening session Thursday at UWM allows public discussion on water issues affecting communities along with expert testimony.

MADISON - Sen. Chris Larson (D-Milwaukee), Rep. Amanda Stuck (D-Appleton) and Rep. Jonathon Brostoff (D-Milwaukee) announce first listening session of their Save Our Water Tour, which accompanies the reintroduction of the Save Our Water Act.

Clean drinking water is a basic human right, and control of our shared waters by profit seekers is undemocratic and jeopardizes our health, freedom, and prosperity. The Save Our Water Tour will allow for public discussion on water issues affecting our communities along with expert testimony to be presented on the threats facing our waters.

WHO: Senator Chris Larson

Representative Amanda Stuck

Representative Jonathon Brostoff

Todd Brennan, Watershed Project Manager, Alliance for the Great Lakes

Amber Meyer Smith, Director of Programs and Government Relations, Clean Wisconsin

Bill Lynch, Milwaukee Board Member, Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters
