

Advocates for Open and Transparent Government to Unveil “Campaign Integrity” Package

Written by State Senate Democrats

Tuesday, 06 June 2017 15:06 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 June 2017 11:58

Powerful special interest groups and wealthy corporations continue to have an overwhelming and growing effect on elections across Wisconsin. Join us Wednesday, June 7, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the Wisconsin State Capitol, Senate Parlor.

MADISON – Assembly members and advocates join Sen. Chris Larson to circulate for co-sponsorship “Campaign Integrity” package that promotes open and transparent government

Powerful special interest groups and wealthy corporations continue to have an overwhelming and growing effect on elections across Wisconsin and nationwide. Our neighbors feel their voices and our democracy are being drowned out by the constant flood of money into political campaigns. Join us for a press conference to unveil the Campaign Integrity package

WHO: Senator Chris Larson

Advocates for Open and Transparent Government to Unveil “Campaign Integrity” Package

Written by State Senate Democrats

Tuesday, 06 June 2017 15:06 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 June 2017 11:58

Assembly Co-sponsors

Matthew Rothschild, Executive Director, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign

Jay Heck, Executive Director, Common Cause Wisconsin

WHEN: Wednesday, June 7, 2017, at 11 a.m.

WHERE: Wisconsin State Capitol, Senate Parlor

This event will be open to the public and the press. If you would like more information about this event, please contact Sen. Larson’s office at 608.266.7505.