

The contempt for the very essence of democracy by some Republicans has reached new depths as they enable Trump fantasy.

MADISON - This week, a Republican member of the Wisconsin Legislature actually said, on camera, that the election results should be invalidated!

This contempt for the very essence of democracy has reached new – and frightening – depths, as I write here:

Please write Rep. Joe Sanfelippo and tell him what you think about his comment on tossing out the elections. You can email him at Rep.Sanfelippo@legis.wisconsin.gov.

Our research team has tabulated all the spending by outside groups in the elections. You can see those results here:

Electioneering Groups Spent Nearly \$9.9M on Legislative Races

While the Democrats managed to outraise the Republicans in Wisconsin this time around, we don't want the Democrats to get the wrong idea about the need for campaign finance reform, so we wrote the following:
