A Special Interview with Wisconsin Public Education Network's Heather DuBois Bourenane

MILWAUKEE - We welcome Wisconsin Public Education Network's Heather DuBois Bourenane to discuss public education in Wisconsin following a state budget that saw the largest expansion of private voucher schools as part of a "deal" that blindsided supporters of public education.

Former President Trump revealed this week he is a target of the special counsel's Jan. 6 investigation, as multiple Wisconsin election officials are interviewed by federal investigators. Meanwhile, MAGA Republican lawmakers introduce another sham bill to add watermarks to absentee ballots that drives right-wing conspiracies about stolen elections. We speculate whether the Michigan AG's prosecution of fake electors in their state will get Wisconsin Attorney General Josh Kaul off the fence and reconsider prosecuting the Wisconsin fake electors who tried to steal our votes in 2020. We also review the Wisconsin Policy Forum's new report trumpeting over $1 Billion in tax cuts in the state budget, however we highlight its failure to point out the only large BIPOC majority city in Wisconsin gets a huge tax increase with a regressive sales tax increase.
