

Pro-pollution Bills Push Wisconsin Backwards

Written by Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Matt Rothschild

Friday, 25 March 2016 11:08 - Last Updated Friday, 25 March 2016 11:22

Scott Walker signs the last of the nasty bills that Speaker Vos and Majority Leader Fitzgerald plopped on his desk, and Wisconsin keeps going backwards.

MADISON - We're still waiting to see whether Scott Walker signs the last of the nasty bills that Speaker Vos and Majority Leader Fitzgerald plopped on his desk.

Here's one of them:

Bill to ease sulfur dioxide pollution enforcement goes to Walker

Speaking of pollution, Tuesday was World Water Day, and Wisconsin keeps going backwards as far as protecting this vital resource goes, as we noted here:

Wisconsin all wet on World Water Day

For the big Wisconsin Supreme Court race on April 5, we just updated our files on the outside groups that are throwing their money around:

Pro-pollution Bills Push Wisconsin Backwards

Written by Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Matt Rothschild

Friday, 25 March 2016 11:08 - Last Updated Friday, 25 March 2016 11:22

Hijacking Campaign 2016 updated with new PAC and issue ad group activity

And I'm still very concerned about the John Doe II appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, so I wrote the following open letter to the DAs involved:

Letter to DAs in John Doe II case appeal

I hope these postings interest you.