

Wisconsin Democracy Campaign "Tasty items!"

Written by Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Matt Rothschild
Friday, 26 August 2016 11:33 -

MADISON - Hey, we got lots of good stuff for you this week!

The most appalling was Attorney General Brad Schimel mimicking George Wallace and Lester Maddox:

Schimel echoes "states' rights" in filing on Wisconsin voting case

The most ludicrous was former Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice David Prosser suddenly finding religion on campaign finance:

Prosser the hypocrite on \$\$ in court campaigns

Here's a snapshot of some of the key problems arising from the disastrous campaign finance law that passed last December:

New campaign finance law enshrines electoral secrecy

For the most current installment in the WEDC pay-to-play saga, check this one out:

Latest \$22 million in WEDC funds goes to big Walker donor

While we're on the subject of business as usual in Wisconsin, here's how the vegetable growers tried to get their way on high-capacity wells:

Big ag poured \$\$ on controversial water bill

And here's a cute little fact we unearthed: Those women for Trump here in Wisconsin? They haven't given him a dime yet.

Wisconsin Women for Trump haven't contributed to Trump's campaign

We had fun researching and writing these tasty items for you this week, so if you appreciate them, please send us a tax-deductible gift today by clicking here .

Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, 203 South Paterson Street, Suite 100, Madison, WI

Wisconsin Democracy Campaign "Tasty items!"

Written by Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Matt Rothschild
Friday, 26 August 2016 11:33 -

53703-3689

608-255-4260 www.wisdc.org

Join us on Facebook

Follow us on Twitter