

“Big Blue Wave?” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Matt Brusky

Saturday, 16 June 2018 10:39 - Last Updated Monday, 18 June 2018 14:42

Results from Tuesday’s special legislative elections, NE WI’s own Lindsay Dorff on gerrymandering, and Attorney General Brad Schimel’s lawsuit to sabotage the ACA.

STATEWIDE - We dig into the results from Tuesday’s special legislative elections in Wisconsin and the ramifications for the general election.

Next, we welcome Lindsay Dorff, Northeast WI Organizing Cooperative Steering Committee member, to discuss gerrymandering in Wisconsin and the pending Supreme Court verdict for the Gil v Whitford case. Lindsay also tells us about the Citizen Action Northeast Cooperative’s member assembly this Saturday and their Governor candidate forum next Saturday, June 23rd.

Our panel also talks about Attorney General Brad Schimel’s lawsuit to sabotage the ACA, Lake County (IL) Board unanimous resolution calling for the state of Wisconsin to reconsider waiving of environmental regulations for Foxconn, and a new study finds Wisconsin’s poverty rate rising dramatically in spite of low unemployment.

LISTEN NOW - EPISODE #347

Download MP3

Press Clips

“Big Blue Wave?” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Matt Brusky

Saturday, 16 June 2018 10:39 - Last Updated Monday, 18 June 2018 14:42

June 16th - Northeast Organizing Cooperative General Assembly info

June 18th - Governor Candidate Forum - Milwaukee info