Walker is claiming he would enact the “exact same” protections on pre-existing conditions he’s currently suing to get rid of.

MADISON - Scott Walker’s desperation knows no bounds--this time he’s telling another blatant lie about his work to eliminate protections for the 2.4 million Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions.

Despite staking his political career on rolling back the Affordable Care Act, including protections for those with pre-existing conditions, Walker is suddenly claiming he would enact the “exact same” protections he’s currently suing to get rid of.

“Scott Walker’s career is defined by desperate politics and shameless political opportunism,” said DGA Press Secretary Melissa Miller. “His latest lie is no different. Now that health care is the most important issue to Wisconsinites, Walker is playing politics with health care. Wisconsinites deserve a governor who won’t use health care as a political ploy and instead will protect protections for 2.4 million Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions.”
