Podcast commentary on Gov. Evers, Walker, dark money and the Los Angeles teachers' strike.

STATEWIDE - We review Gov. Tony Evers' first State of the State address this week, and the GOP lock step propaganda message in response. We discuss new reporting revealing the Walker campaign and its dark money allies spent an astounding $58 million in 2018 election, and its implications for democracy. We also check in on the latest GOP legislator attack on the Wisconsin Idea. Finally, we welcome Angelina Cruz, president of the Racine Education Association, to discuss the recently settled Los Angeles educators' strike and the implications for Wisconsin.
