- In Iowa: Des Moines Gazette : Negotiated Medicare drug costs could aid 36K Iowans
- In Maine: Maine Beacon : 'Major milestone.' Biden takes first step to directly negotiate down drug prices

And here's what they're saying on local broadcasts:

- In California: KTLA Los Angeles : "For the first time ever, Medicare will negotiate with drug manufacturers over the price of some medications. The Biden administration has announced the name of the 10 drugs that could see their prices come down."
- In California: FOX 2 KTVU : "President Biden says his administration will soon negotiate prices of widely used prescription drugs to help reduce costs for millions of Americans. The administration also says the negotiations will also save taxpayers billions of dollars."
- In Iowa: Iowa's News Now : "For decades, Big Pharma has been able to use Medicare as a blank check, raking in billions of dollars off the backs of older Americans, but thanks to President Biden and Democrats' Inflation Reduction Act, prescription drug costs are falling and more Iowa seniors will be able to afford the medication they need — no thanks to a single Republican," said Rita Hard, Chair for IDP. "Every single GOP candidate coming through Iowa needs to answer whether they would rip away these lifesaving provisions and raise costs for families across the Hawkeye State — Iowans deserve to know."
- In Louisiana: WDSU New Orleans : "The government just announced a major step forward to reduce the cost of prescription drugs, the Biden administration will announce the first drugs Medicare will negotiate lower prices for under the Inflation Reduction Act."
- In Missouri: KMBC Kansas City : "The program, part of the Democrat-only Inflation Reduction Act passed last year, allows Medicare to negotiate directly with pharmaceutical companies to lower prices."
- In New Mexico: KOAT Albuquerque : "President Biden announced this morning he's going to be pursuing talks with diabetes drug Jardiance, [a] blood thinner, as well as eight others, hoping that patients on Medicare could save money as soon as 2026. So as part of the White House's Inflation Reduction Act, the government's going to start price negotiations by early next year."
- In Pennsylvania: PCNC Pittsburgh : "President Biden is expected to take the first major step in dramatically lowering the cost of some common prescription drugs. The White House will officially announce the first 10 drugs that it will begin negotiating the prices of with manufacturers for Medicare patients."
- In Texas: FOX 26 Houston : "Today in Washington, the Biden administration is set to announce the first batch of prescription drugs that will be subject to new price negotiations with Medicare. Among the drugs included are the diabetes treatment Jardiance and Entresto, which is used to treat heart failure and the blood thinner Eliquis. And many see this as an important first step in lowering drug costs for Medicare recipients."
- In Vermont: CBS 3 WCAX : "If you know a veteran, ask the veteran if they get their prescription drugs through the VA, how much they pay for those drugs compared to what they would be on the market -- and there is a huge difference because the Veterans Administration negotiates with those drug companies."

Across the country this week, Bidenomics continued to make headlines for creating new economic opportunities for all Americans in key industries such as manufacturing and clean energy.
