The following is a statement from Biden-Harris 2024 senior spokesperson Kevin Munoz in response to Donald Trump saying (again) on Fox News he would not defend our NATO allies:

“Extorting our allies, empowering Putin, and encouraging war is now a staple of Donald Trump’s campaign stump. While Trump threatens to walk away from our NATO allies from the safety of a Fox News studio, the people of Ukraine fight for their own freedom and right to exist with bravery and purpose Trump could never understand — because he only cares about what’s good for Donald Trump. That’s not who the American people are — over 70% of whom stand against Trump’s plan to let Putin “do whatever the hell he wants.” Trump is a weak leader — someone who doesn’t understand the power of democracy here at home or across the globe. That’s why he’ll lose again to Joe Biden this November.”
