MIDDLETON, WI - As Russ travels to every corner of Wisconsin, listening to voters in all of Wisconsin's 72 counties this year, Russ for Wisconsin launched the new "Wisconsin 72"- a Tumblr site to follow his travels and highlight the meetings, conversations, and events he's had along the way.

Located at <http://russ-feingold.tumblr.com/>, Wisconsin 72 is more than just a look into campaign life on the road - the new Tumblr will feature:

- Exclusive videos
- Wisconsin county facts
- A map of Wisconsin to follow along as Russ travels from Kenosha County to Douglas County, and every county in between

"Russ knows how important it is to meet, in person, with people from every one of Wisconsin's 72 counties," said Russ for Wisconsin Campaign Manager Tom Russell. "It's not quick and it's not easy, but the only way to truly hear the ideas and concerns of all Wisconsinites is to hit the road and start listening."
