MILWAUKEE, WI - After a bombshell report on Tuesday in the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel , Senator Johnson keeps changing the story about his $10 million corporate payout. But no matter how you slice it, Senator Johnson clearly lied to Wisconsinites.

SHOT: 9/23/2011 - "Johnson said the $10 million payment was 'an agreed-upon amount' that was determined at the end of his tenure with the company. Agreed upon with

whom? 'That would be me,' he said

CHASER: 9/15/2016 - "Pacur recognized he would be resigning from his active position with the company and settled the account by independently calculating the back pay he was owed ."
