Only one person in this race who has the experience, judgment, and temperament to be our next Commander in Chief - and that is Hillary Clinton.

MADISON - Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Martha Laning released the following statement in light of Hillary Clinton's victory at tonight's debate:

"Once again, voters saw there is only one person in this race who has the experience, judgment, and temperament to be our next Commander in Chief - and that is Hillary Clinton. During tonight's debate, she offered detailed policies that will invest in American workers, protect Social Security and Medicare, create an economy that works for everyone, and work with our partners around the world to strengthen our security at home and abroad. Hillary Clinton's experience as a lawyer for the Children's Defense Fund, First Lady, US Senator, and Secretary of State makes her, as President Barack Obama said, the most qualified person to ever run for president.

"Donald Trump simply doesn't have the temperament to be President of the United States. Throughout his campaign he has insulted and demeaned millions of Americans, cheered on Vladimir Putin as he and Russian hackers tamper with our elections, questioned why we don't use nuclear weapons, and has said he will appoint Supreme Court justices who would roll back decades of progress.

"We must do everything we can to ensure we elect Hillary Clinton as our next President of the United States."
