MILWAUKEE, WI - When I ran my business, I always believed that the best way to solve problems was to get out on the factory floor and talk to the people who experienced them every day.

You've probably heard me say that before, but it's true. And now I want to make sure every Wisconsinite has the chance to tell me about the problems they experience every day and get to hear how I'll fix them.

I'm planning to host a Facebook Live Town Hall on February 23rd, where I want to answer your questions and talk about the issues you care about.

Take a minute now to fill out our short campaign survey and help me plan what I'll be talking about on Friday the 23rd.

This campaign is about you -- listening to your ideas, fixing the problems you face, and making life better in Wisconsin for you and your family. It's about undoing the damage of Scott Walker and making our state the best it can be.

But the best way for me to make a plan and get this started is to hear directly from you.

Will you take our short survey now? It shouldn't take more than 3 minutes.
