Republican AG candidate withdraws from only debate for the race that was scheduled to take place outside of the I-94 corridor.

MADISON - Yesterday evening, Brad Schimel, who has ignored Josh Kaul's challenge to debate in every congressional district in Wisconsin, withdrew from the only debate for the Attorney General's race that was scheduled to take place outside of the I-94 corridor.

Kaul campaign advisor Gillian Drummond commented, "Josh Kaul believes that people from across the state deserve the opportunity to hear from the candidates for Attorney General about how they will address the important issues in their communities. Brad Schimel should explain to Wisconsinites why he won't debate Josh Kaul anywhere outside of Milwaukee or Madison."

Josh Kaul served as a federal prosecutor in Baltimore, one of America's most violent cities. There, Kaul prosecuted murderers, gang members, and drug traffickers, taking dangerous
