Make your voice heard and stop this abuse of power! Tell legislators to accept the will of the people!

MADISON - On Election Day, you and thousands of other conservation voters went to the polls and changed Wisconsin's government by electing Tony Evers governor and Josh Kaul attorney general.

You knew it was time for new leadership to protect our water, air, and beautiful places – and you made it happen.

Now, rather than accepting your vote and working with our newly elected leaders, top Republicans in the legislature are sabotaging your vote.

In an unprecedented abuse of power, they are attempting to use a lame duck session to reverse the will of hundreds of thousands of voters.
