Party Announces Key Hires for 2020 Cycle

MADISON -- The Democratic Party of Wisconsin is proud to announce the promotion of Devin Remiker to Executive Director of Political Affairs and Tom McCann to Finance Director. Additionally, the Party has already made key hires for its 2020 field organizing program, bolstering its year-in-year-out field program with a pivotal early investment.

“After resounding victories for Wisconsin Democrats in November, it is crucial that the Party is able to carry its success forward into 2019 and beyond,” said Martha Laning, Chair of the Democratic Party of Wisconsin. “The Party is committed to supporting Governor-elect Tony Evers and his vision for the future of our state. And we are determined as ever to deliver Wisconsin to our 2020 Democratic presidential nominee. Our new personnel and our ambitious organizing program will be essential to these efforts.”

Devin Remiker formerly served as Congressman Ron Kind's campaign manager in La Crosse and as DPW's Political Director. Tom McCann was born and raised in Eau Claire and formerly served as DPW’s Membership Director.
