Will be in Oconto Falls Nov. 21 and in Kewaunee, Brillion, and Winneconne Nov. 25-26.

APPLETON - On Monday, Rep. Amanda Stuck announced the latest round of listening sessions for her campaign for the 8th Congressional District. Rep Stuck will have visited every county for a listening session this year.

“As I finish my first round of listening sessions, one thing is clear. The hard working people of Northeast Wisconsin do not have a Representative willing to listen to their everyday concerns. We are seeing healthcare become more expensive and less accessible. We are seeing the cost of living go up the real wages of workers are staying flat. We deserve a Representative who knows what they are going through and is willing to listen to their concerns ,” said Rep. Stuck.
