

Women Military Veterans Express Outrage With Derrick Van Orden

Written by Democratic Party of Wisconsin, Courtney Beyer

Thursday, 01 October 2020 09:20 - Last Updated Saturday, 03 October 2020 09:27

WISCONSIN -- Today, three women veterans from Wisconsin's Third Congressional District will hold a press conference expressing their outrage following revelations of Derrick Van Orden's troubling history of sexual harassment in the United States Navy.

Last week, the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel first reported that in his 2015 book, Derrick Van Orden bragged about sexually harassing two women naval officers by exposing them to a male Lieutenant's genitals without their consent.

WHAT: A video press call with three women veterans from Wisconsin's Third Congressional District expressing their disgust in Derrick Van Orden's history of sexual harassment in the Navy.

WHO: Three women veterans from Wisconsin's Third Congressional District.

WHEN: TODAY, October 1st, 11:00 AM CT