Last night reminded us to fight for bold, progressive ideals of economic opportunity, civil rights, and a foreign policy that reconnects America with the rest of the world. Our progressive movement is as strong as ever, so add your name right now to become a volunteer for the grassroots team that's taking the fight to every corner of Wisconsin.

MADISON - Just a few years ago, I wouldn't have believed it. But, last night, I watched First Lady Michelle Obama and Senators Elizabeth Warren and Bernie Sanders address delegates at the Democratic National Convention, and one thing was crystal clear: our bold, progressive vision was front and center on the stage of the Democratic National Convention.

Last night reminded us of why we're in this: To fight for bold, progressive ideals of economic opportunity, civil rights, and a foreign policy that reconnects America with the rest of the world. That's what's been the core of our campaign since day one, and I can't tell you how great it is to see Democrats excited about a progressive vision for our country.

Our progressive movement is as strong as ever, and it's because of supporters like you. You've made sure that our voices are heard and our ideas rise to the top.

Together, we've built a grassroots army of volunteers across Wisconsin to help support our progressive movement, and we need your help. Add your name, and sign up to be a volunteer.

We know why we're fighting. As I've traveled to each of Wisconsin's 72 counties and logged over 50,000 miles on our campaign van, I've met with people of all backgrounds and listened to their stories. And what I've heard more than anything else is that people are having a hard time making ends meet.

It's simple: Our fight is about opening the door to opportunity for all Americans. We need an economy that works for everyone
-- not just those at the top.

With your support, I'll take these values all the way to the United States Senate, where I'll work with Senator Warren, Senator Sanders, and others to fight for a progressive agenda that expands opportunity and puts working families first. It's not just about defeating Donald Trump and his divisive, hateful Republican Party: It's about moving our shared priorities ahead of the priorities of big business and special interest groups, and passing bold, progressive, forward-looking ideas into law.

If you're with me, add your name right now to become a volunteer for the grassroots team that's taking our fight to every corner of Wisconsin.

This campaign, this movement, is about all of us working together to make things better for all Americans. And it's up to us to get this done.

Sincerely,

Russ
