“Northeast Wisconsin's families deserve a voice in Washington that will fight for them and that's Amanda,” says Joe.

Appleton, WI — On Monday, Vice President Joe Biden announced his endorsement of Assemblywoman Amanda Stuck for Congress in Wisconsin's 8th District:

"Amanda Stuck has a proven record of working across the aisle in the State Assembly to deliver results for Wisconsin's families. I know Amanda will continue to fight for worker's rights, the environment, and affordable health care. Northeast Wisconsin's families deserve a voice in Washington that will fight for them and that's Amanda."

Biden's endorsement comes just 21 days from Election Day and on the heels of the support from over a dozen unions, including the American Federations of Teachers, the AFL-CIO, and FireFighters Local 257.

"I'm humbled by the endorsement of Vice President Biden," said Assemblywoman Stuck. "Americans deserve a government that works for them. We need honest, thoughtful leadership to recover from this pandemic, create good jobs, and protect our environment. Vice President Biden knows this is the path towards ensuring hard-working Wisconsinites can thrive."

"I'm proud to have earned the Vice President's endorsement," Stuck continued. "And I look forward to Wisconsin delivering him a win this election so I can get to work with him in Washington as the next representative of the 8th District."
