Lorna and Jack just got married in the tropics, and their grown up kids don't like it!

Now the newlyweds feel like a couple of fools. Surely ending their impulsive "cruise ship" marriage is best solution. Lorna's two kids and Jack's daughter are all for that, but their meddling prompts Jack and Lorna to rethink their plan.

A professional organizer, maybe Lorna is a little too proud of her spotless home. She fell in love with Jack's generous heart, but must he rescue every abandoned dog in town? The owner of a popular '60s nostalgia café, Jack feels right at home in Lorna's bedroom, but he might as well be a stranger everywhere else in her perfect house.

In a matter of days, Lorna puts her organizing skills to work to help Jack's elderly dad and Jack takes on a rescue mission, this one involving Lorna's daughter. But, even as their lives become more enmeshed, this "opposites attract" duo can't quite get in sync. Can they find a way to make peace with their dueling quirks and have some fun with their second-chance romance?
