STATEWIDE - We look back at this week's primary election and peer forward towards the November general election. A new MU Law Poll shows Clinton and Feingold with substantial leads, Trump stunningly unpopular and Johnson both unpopular and little known.

We also discuss a Federal Appellate Court decision blocking a workaround for Photo ID.

We also encourage listeners to become poll workers, and review Donald Trump's latest proto-fascist ravings, including his unveiled threat to Hillary Clinton and his pronouncement that President Obama is the 'the founder of ISIS'.
