

“Trumped” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Matt Brusky
Friday, 14 October 2016 10:12 -

The surreal week for the presidential campaign, the latest in the photo ID lawsuit, the Citizen Action Organizing Cooperative in Milwaukee's South Shore suburbs & Eau Claire, and more.

STATEWIDE - We review a surreal week for the presidential campaign and its impact on Paul Ryan and the GOP. The new MU poll reveals the potential impact of Trump's weekend on the tight the U.S. Senate race.

Robert Kraig updates us on the latest in the photo ID lawsuit in court this week and why health insurance premiums on the Wisconsin exchange will increase next year.

Anna Dvorak from the Citizen Action Organizing Cooperative joins us to discuss the co-op's new Radio-Active campaign and the current membership drives in Milwaukee, Western Wisconsin, and in Northeast Wisconsin.

Anna also discusses the cooperative's deep canvass project in Milwaukee's South Shore suburbs and Eau Claire area which is discussing economic issues and building support for co-op member Jack Redmond, Howard White, Russ Feingold and Hillary Clinton.

LISTEN NOW - EPISODE #264

Download MP3

Citizen Action Media Clips

“Trumped” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Matt Brusky
Friday, 14 October 2016 10:12 -

Citizen Action of Wisconsin · 221 S 2nd St, suite 300, Milwaukee, WI 53204, United States

October is National Co-op month, and are at the halfway mark for our 60 day Radio-Active member drive, our "Acción Ciudadana" member drive and almost halfway for our "Western Wisconsin Victory Lap" member drive. AND it is the first day of our 60 day Northeast WI member drive!