MILWAUKEE - Our Thanksgiving special is an extended interview with State Senator Chris Larson, the outgoing Democratic Leader. In the wide ranging interview we chat with Chris about what it is like to lead a statewide electoral effort, debrief the results of the 2014 elections, and discuss why too many out-state voters are responding to false right-wing appeals. We also look forward to another legislative session in the wilderness, and give a scouting report on the biggest threats to freedom and opportunity from the next conservative offensive.
