

Gableman on the Hot Seat

MADISON - I hope your week's gone well.

I was pleased to see that the great pro-democracy law firm, Law Forward, is trying to get Michael Gableman's law license revoked. I wrote about that here:

Thank You, Law Forward, for Pursuing Gableman

And I was also heartened by a piece of legislation to honor César Chavez. My colleague Iuscely Flores wrote about it, and about the struggle for the rights of undocumented workers here in Wisconsin:

As you may have heard by now, next Tuesday is The Big Share, the annual spring online fundraising event sponsored by Community Shares of Wisconsin, which we're proud to be a part of.

I'm hoping you'll donate to the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign to help us kick-off The Big Share on March 7.

If you want to double your donation with a Board of Directors match while also potentially help us win additional monetary prizes, between 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. for the Support our work to make change happen!
