

Making the Best of a Bad Hand

Posted on Jul 12, Posted by Jeff Smith, State Senator District 31 Category Wisconsin

Gov. Evers signed the budget last week, exercising his partial veto to modify the most harmful provisions added by Republican legislators. Our lack of political compromise is driven by gerrymandering and the resulting lack of electoral accountability.

---

MADISON - The big news in Madison last week was the Governor signing the budget. The even bigger news was how he did it. The Governor put his veto pen to work on 51 areas of the budget. Most notable was his veto of the tax cuts for the wealthy that Republicans crammed in at the very end of the process. Governor Evers' veto prevents Wisconsin from wasting a surplus, but many opportunities remain unaddressed and crises continue to loom.

...the budget, ...

...at