WI Federalist Society, WEAC President, Teachers to Call Out Administration for Not Prioritizing Safe School Re-Opening Plan.

WISCONSIN -- Today, as Betsy DeVos holds a closed-door event with members of the Wisconsin Federalist Society, WEAC President Ron Martin, La Crosse teachers Jesse Martinez and Tammy Gruen, and Wisconsin College Democrats Chair Cecelia McDermott will hold a video press conference calling out Trump and DeVos for refusing to put a plan in place that would allow teachers and students to return to schools safely this fall.

As local school districts and teachers are left in the dark about a plan to keep their students safe, DeVos is instead focused on touting her proposal that will make it harder for college students to report sexual harassment and assault through changes to Title IX.

WHAT: A press call discussing Donald Trump and Betsy DeVos' efforts to make it harder for college students to report sexual harassment and assault while offering no plan to get kids back to school safely.
