MADISON — First Lady Kathy Evers today announced that "Women Who Inspire," a program of the Committee to Celebrate the Centennial Anniversary of Wisconsin's Ratification of the 19th Amendment, will highlight two more Wisconsin women on the Committee's website : Ntxhais "Chai" Moua, Portage County Supervisor and Community Power Coalition Director at Freedom, Inc. (Stevens Point) and Inez "Midge" Montano, Tribal Member, Red Cliff Band of Lake Superior Chippewa (Bayfield).

"Throughout the last 100 years and continuing today, women stand on the shoulders of the suffragists in the fight to further parity and opportunity for others," said First Lady Evers, who chairs the Committee. "Chai and Midge have worked tirelessly to positively impact their communities and the lives of women around them and deserve to be nominated as women who inspire."
