

Farmers Union President Slams Ron Johnson's Failure to Stand Up For Agriculture

Written by WisDems Press, Philip Shulman

Friday, 13 August 2021 10:30 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 August 2021 10:43

Darin Von Ruden slams Ron Johnson for voting against the bipartisan infrastructure bill.

Eau Claire, Wis. -- Thursday, Wisconsin Farmers Union President Darin Von Ruden slammed Ron Johnson for voting against the bipartisan infrastructure bill and abandoning Wisconsin's farming communities. The legislation includes funding to repair roads and bridges, invest in clean water infrastructure, and expand high-speed internet.

You can watch the full event here and see highlights of what Darin Von Ruden said below:

Wisconsin Farmers Union President Darin Von Ruden: With the bipartisan infrastructure bill, we'll have the support we need to help our farms and businesses grow and be better equipped to provide for our families and communities. Ron Johnson was soundly against even discussing

Farmers Union President Slams Ron Johnson's Failure to Stand Up For Agriculture

Written by WisDems Press, Philip Shulman

Friday, 13 August 2021 10:30 - Last Updated Saturday, 14 August 2021 10:43

what this bill could do for the agriculture sector in our state and is clearly in Washington to serve himself and those who can pay to play.