MILWAUKEE - We discuss what's next for the Build Back Better agenda and breaking news on Citizen Action's upcoming Congressional Week of Action. The panel talks about a bombshell New York Times report that Wisconsin was at the epicenter of the plot to send fake electors, a key piece of Donald Trump's insurrection plot. In the Legislature this week Republicans introduced a series of bills to rig future elections, while Senate Minority Leader Janet Bewley announced her retirement. We close with an interview of Marina Dimitrijevic, Citizen Actions' newly endorsed candidate for Milwaukee Mayor.
