Panel discusses lessons to be learned from John Fedderman’s campaign for U.S. Senate in the upcoming Pennsylvania primary and apply to Wisconsin, and the strange role of health care in the 2022 elections.

MILWAUKEE - We take stock on 1 million COVID-19 deaths in America. What does it say about the country and what does it portend for the future? Primary elections have started across the country and we look at the role of Donald Trump in the elections. Robert discusses lessons to be learned from John Fedderman’s campaign for U.S. Senate in the upcoming Pennsylvania primary and apply to Wisconsin. We discuss the strange role of health care in the 2022 elections. In addition to the impending repeal of Roe v Wade, Ron Johnson is pushing repealing the Affordable Care Act and ending programs like Medicare, Medicaid, and Social Security. We close with Robert previewing state legislation that will be introduced later this summer to address the climate crisis and structural economic racism.
