MILWAUKEE - We welcome Dr. Michael Rosen to the show , our resident economist dissected a new proposal asking to ReThink Brewers ownership and demand public equity in the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for nearly half $1 billion of public tax revenue.

We also discuss the climate change-induced Category 4 hurricane that hit Florida this week and yet another week of tragic shootings on multiple college campuses. We talk about the response from the University of North Carolina student newspaper bringing the horror the proliferation of guns has resulted in. In Wisconsin, Supreme Court Justice Rebecca Dallet writes an excellent letter to Justice Ziegler calling her out for her scheme to create a media firestorm and overturn another democratic election.
