Condemn three anti-trans bills passed on partisan lines Thursday in Assembly.

Madison – Today, three anti-trans bills (AB 377, AB 378, & AB 465) were brought to the floor for a vote. While all three bills passed on partisan lines, Governor Evers has vowed to veto these extremely harmful and discriminatory pieces of legislation. Representative Ratcliff delivered her first floor speech in the State Assembly with remarks on AB 465 relating to: prohibiting gender transition medical intervention for individuals under 18 years of age.

The Transgender Parent and Non-Binary Advocacy Caucus (TPANAC) remains consistent on their outspoken condemnation of these pieces of legislation. Co-chair of Transgender Parent and Non-Binary Advocacy Caucus, Melissa Ratcliff (D-Cottage Grove), released the following statement in response to the actions taken on the floor today:

TPANAC, Democrats Stand United Defending Wisconsin's Transgender Community
