Tuesday's Primary Election in Wisconsin takes center stage, plus Tammy Baldwin's outstanding leadership on Medicare For All legislation.

STATEWIDE - We focus on next Tuesday's Primary Election in Wisconsin. The panel discusses the Democratic governor primary and whether anyone other than presumed front runner Tony Evers can emerge the winner. We also review other important state legislative primaries, including Jeff Smith in Senate District 31 and Marisabel Cabrera in Assembly District 9. We announce Citizen Action's endorsement of Earnell Lucas in the Milwaukee County Sheriff's race. Lee Snodgrass, Citizen Action's endorsed candidate in Senate District 19, joins us to talk about her campaign, the importance of the race to gaining power in the legislature, and encourage volunteers to meet Lee and help get out the vote in the Appleton area this Saturday.

We close the show with a discussion of Tammy Baldwin's outstanding leadership on Medicare For All legislation and more WEDC contracts for Scott Walker donors.
