aware of how, when and what you'll need to vote.

"First, make sure you are registered. You can check myvote.wi.gov to see if you're currently registered, if not, you can register at your local clerk's office during business hours or at your polling place on Election Day.

"Additionally, absentee ballots are currently available statewide and many municipalities also offer in-person absentee voting at local clerk's offices. Online, you can search for your polling place, see what's on the next ballot or learn more about absentee voting. Find this information at myvote.wi.gov.

"To make sure you have the proper ID needed to vote head to bringitwisconsin.com . If you need a free ID to vote, take proof of identity, proof of residency, proof of citizenship and social security card to your DMV. This information can be found online at bringitwisconsin.com

"The polls are open from 7:00am to 8:00pm on Tuesday, November 6th, 2018. For any other questions, the Wisconsin Elections Commission can be contacted at 608-266-8005.

"Voting is your constitutional right. Make a plan to exercise that right on Tuesday, November 6th."
